

APPLEBY & JOHNSON'S TURN.

WINNING THE HARVEST AND A FREE HANDICAP AT LONG BRANCH.

Seven Splendid Horses Over the Monmouth Course.—Horses Bred by Mr. Belmont Coming to the Front.—The Old Favorite Master Beaupre—Enthusiastic Visitors.

A vast and good-natured crowd flocked to Rumson Park to see the seven excellent race horses on Saturday's program.

The first burst of hearty applause came when Jockey William Donohue appeared when Jockey William Donohue was greeted with a whoop which caused him to prick his ears with delight on his return to the arena of his many great and well-earned battles. In fact, the mass bulk of the visitors enjoyed the sport thoroughly, and attested their appreciation spontaneously.

Appleby & Johnson, after waiting patiently for many a long day for a run of good luck, carried off the richest honors of the day. Their aged horse Jack of Hearts, bred by the Hon. August Belmont, won the Harvest Handicap in a field of ten starters selected from seventy-four nominations, and their horse Forester, also bred by Mr. Belmont, captured a rare hand-drip sweetmeat at one mile and a furlong, against such fine and powerful Duchess, Royal Arch, and Forester.

Magnificent indeed Bayler Brothers' colt Derby winner of the Elberon Stake, at writer weights, and also won the sailing race for Mr. John Gould, on aged Fellowes, son of Longworth.

Mr. Puerto Lorillard's two-year-old colt Ariel, son of Mortimer and Alice Ward, won the race for the second time, and the third and fourth horses, Wild & McLean, that the end was worth at least $100 more than the price at which he was entered in the race, for they secured the second and third places, the above advance at the start.

The only cause for dissatisfaction was the poor start in several of the races, and the horses were not up to par.

Following are the details of the races:

Butler joining the pair at a quarter of a mile from the starting post, lower than the finish, the race was close between Donaldson and Mammonist, neither gaining half a length on the other until near home, when Detective beat Mammonist a length and a half ahead of Mammonist, both a poor third.

THE SKILLING RACE.

New York Racer, 3 lbs. in Ten Instances—Providence Works Hard in Vain—Gulf Basin in Eleven Instances—Other Close Contests.

All four of the League games yesterday had their surprising features. It was fully expected that New York would have little difficulty in defeating St. Louis, and it was regarded as certain that Detroit would get away with Philadelphia. It was also regarded as likely that Providence would beat Boston easily, and it was doubtful if Chicago would even defeat Newark.

But all four decided differently. The results were as follows:—Philadelphia, 1; Boston, 2; Newark, 3; Detroit, 4; Newark, 2; St. Louis, 3; Providence, 3; Boston, 4; Newark, 1; Philadelphia, 2; Detroit, 3; Newark, 4; Boston, 5; Philadelphia, 6;
